Program Name: Financial Literacy Repository

Web site: <http://www.nefe.org/>

Grade Level: All ages

Code: CH

Personnel needed:

Funding: American Express, private & public partnerships and sponsors

Description: This is a joint project of the Alliance for National Renewal (ANR) and the National Endowment for Financial Education (NEFE). This repository provides information about a cross-section of outstanding literacy programs developed by community, government, and nonprofit organizations, including NEFE. The programs included in the repository have a common goal: to help Americans, especially those in underserved populations, better understand and apply sound money-management practices.
The goal is based on a belief that improved financial literacy will result in more productive, fulfilling lives for individuals and families-and, in turn, more vibrant, economically stable neighborhoods and communities.

Program Host: US Department of Education

Program Name: What Works Clearinghouse

Web site: <http://www.w-w-c.org/>

Grade Level: All ages

Code: CH

Personnel needed:

Funding: US Department of Education

Description: The What Works Clearinghouse (WWC) is a national project created and funded by the US Department of Education's Office of Educational Research & Improvement in August 2002 to provide educators, policymakers, and the public with a central, independent, and trusted source of evidence of what works in education. The clearinghouse is a trusted source of evidence of what works in education through several easily accessible Web-based databases and will provide decisionmakers with the information they need to make choices based on high-quality scientific research. WWC will develop standards for reviewing and synthesizing rigorous research and will present its findings in accessible, straightforward language through the following user-friendly, searchable online databases: an educational interventions registry, an approaches and policies registry, a test instruments registry and an evaluator registry.
