

State of Wisconsin
Department of Financial Institutions

Scott Walker, Governor

Lon E. Roberts, Secretary

December 13, 2016

EFFECTIVE JANUARY 3, 2017

Cash transactions will no longer be accepted

As of January 3, 2017, The Department of Financial Institutions will no longer accept cash for filing and copying services. Customers that come to the Department to complete these transactions are encouraged to use alternate payment options that include the use of personal checks, cashier checks and money orders.

Customers can also save time and resources by using the Department's online services at:
www.wdfi.org

This transition is made to simplify and reduce the risk to transactions management, and enhance the safety and security of our customers.

For more information please contact us at 608-261-7577 or by e-mail at DFISecretary@wisconsin.gov

Thank you.

Division of Corporate and Consumer Services
Department of Financial Institutions